RESTAURANTS

DID YOU KNOW?

Great food is always abundant in Davis. From American regional to vegetarian, or Thai to Pacific Northwest, this charming college town has cuisine to fit even the most discerning of palettes.

VISITOR'S GUIDE

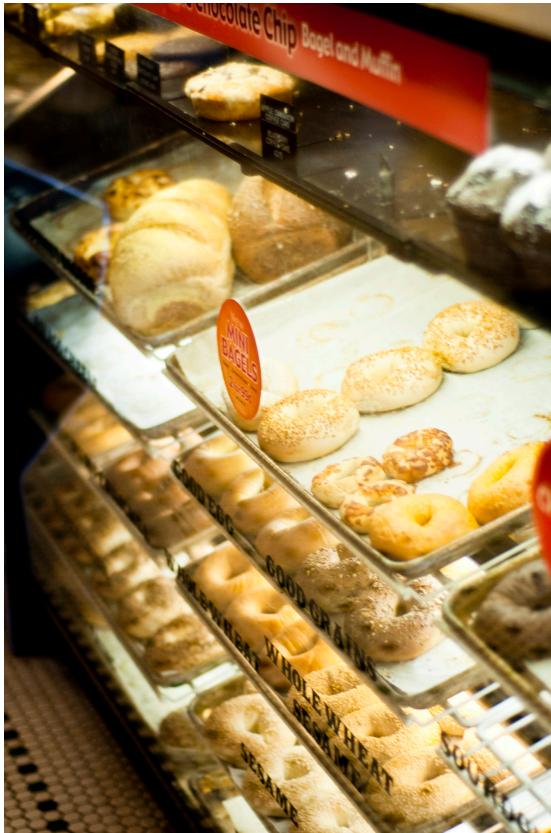

DOWNTOWN

Arguably the hub of Davis life, downtown has a large collection of multi-cultural restaurants. Spanning 1st through 5th Streets and A through G Streets, the downtown area has a restaurant for everyone. Vegetarian dining is available at Delta of Venus and Farmer's Kitchen Café. Don't pass go, go straight to jail – for dinner that is. Bistro 33, located in the historic Town Hall and Jail serves a Pacific Northwest selection on a beautifully lit patio. Even Czech favorites and Spanish tapas are served at downtown Davis restaurants.

NORTH DAVIS

North Davis, located in the area north of West Covell Blvd and west of F Street, has an assortment of convenient restaurant options. Need a quick breakfast? Head to Noah's Bagels. Got a craving for Southwestern? Dos Coyotes can solve that. From sushi to Italian, Chinese to fast food, North Davis restaurants offer great eats.

SOUTH DAVIS

South of Interstate 80, the South Davis region is home to many popular and locally owned Davis restaurants. With organic ice cream made from seasonal and locally sourced ingredients, as well as cupcakes and cookies, Davis Creamery is the perfect stop for guests with a sweet tooth. Coffee lovers rejoice at Common Grounds Coffee, a cafe that offers the community a quality coffee and espresso menu. For those looking for a bigger bite to eat, stop in at Taqueria Guadalajara for burritos and other popular Mexican food.

EAST DAVIS

East Davis, north of Interstate 80 and east of J Street offers a variety of restaurants. Quench your thirst with a cold brew from Sudwerks, or chow down on chow mein at Jade Garden. Konditorei, a gourmet bakery straight from Vienna, Austria, serves a unique menu of traditional Austrian pastries, cookies and truffles.

SHOPS

DID YOU KNOW?

Davis has an everlasting appreciation for locally owned businesses and hosts only a few corporate retailers. The downtown area has a combination of “mom & pop” shops and big brands, which sculpt a community that is uniquely Davis.

DOWNTOWN SHOPPING

Shopping is always in fashion at downtown Davis retailers. Women have several ready-to-wear and upscale boutiques to choose from, including Riki, a boutique offering designer clothing for all ages. Head to Fleet Feet, the Avid Reader or Dimple Music to find what Davis has to offer outdoor lovers, bookworms and music junkies.

GROCERY AND CONVENIENCE

For all your food and beverage needs, including desserts, sushi and made-to-order deli sandwiches, head to Davis' gourmet grocery store, the Nugget. Target, the largest retailer in Davis, has you covered, selling everything from clothing to electronics. CVS is the go-to for all basic needs and is a short distance from campus.

DAVIS COMMONS

Located off of 1-80 on the corner of 1st and E Street, the easily accessible Davis Commons is a popular spot for shopping and dining.

RETAILERS

Borders Books and Music, Bath and Body Works, the Gap, and Verizon Wireless.

ON CAMPUS

THINGS TO DO

DID YOU KNOW?

Catch a cheap flick-- Regal Theaters offer $5 movies on Tuesday afternoons.

After a conference or event, unwind at one of UC Davis' many on campus attractions. The Mondavi Center, located in the University Gateway district, hosts an array of performers ranging from orchestras and opera to dance groups and public speakers. With some free time, buzz over to the Bohart Entomology Museum, home to over 7 million insect specimens. Guests can enjoy a stroll along Putah Creek in the tranquil Arboretum. This 100-acre public garden on the southern edge of campus is home to over 4,000 types of trees and plant life.

OFF CAMPUS

The Davis community offers several indoor and outdoor recreation opportunities where guests can spend spare time. Tee-it-up at local golf courses: Davis Muni or Wildhorse Golf Club. Rocknasium, an indoor rock climbing gym, is perfect for experienced and novice climbers alike. Art lovers will relish in the displays at John Natsoulas Gallery, an anchor of the Davis art scene in downtown Davis.

NIGHTLIFE

Despite the city's small size, Davis nightlife has it all. Kick up your heels at the Graduate, a sports bar and dance club that serves over 20 beers on tap and has both salsa and country-line dancing. Trivia junkies will love the trivia nights offered at Sophia's Thai Kitchen, Bistro 33 and Woodstock Pizza. Get a taste of Bohemian nightlife at the city's favorite Czech import, Little Prague, a bar and restaurant that serves 24 oz Czech brews. For drinks that are uniquely northern Californian, head to Sudwerk, the city's local microbrewery. Froggy's and Café Bernardo, two other staples of Davis nightlife, draw students and locals alike with no cover charge.

REGIONAL ATTRACTIOnS

DID YOU KNOW?

Have some free time? Spend the afternoon visiting Sacramento or Napa. For guests with a day or two to spare, San Francisco and Lake Tahoe are ideal day trips.

SACRAMENTO

The state's capitol city is just a 20 minute drive from Davis and offers an array of possibilities ranging from museums and shopping to fine dining. To reach downtown or old town Sacramento take 1-80 east, merge onto Highway 50 east, to I-5 north and exit J Street.

SAN FRANCISCO

Big city excitement waits just over an hour away in San Francisco. Visit one of San Francisco's many museums, take a guided tour, or catch a ball game during the spring and summer months! Take I-80 West toward San Francisco and cross the Bay Bridge into the city.

WINE TASTING

Spend a free afternoon experiencing Northern California's world renowned wine culture. Tour Clarksburg, El Dorado, Yolo, Lodi, Amador, Sonoma, or Napa for fine wine and cuisine!

LAKE TAHOE

Two hours from Davis is Lake Tahoe, a beautiful getaway for skiing, hiking, rock climbing and golfing. Take 1-80 East to Highway 50 toward Lake Tahoe.

THAT'S SO DAVIS

DID YOU KNOW?

Davis is famous for its appreciation of organic and locally grown produce. This college town draws hundreds of thousands for the annual Picnic Day and Whole Earth festivals.

VISITOR'S GUIDE

DAVIS FARMER'S MARKET

Check out the Davis Farmer's Market at Central Park located at the intersection of 5th and B Streets for fresh and locally grown produce: Saturdays 8am-1pm year round, Wednesday afternoons March-October.

DAVIS CO-OP

A local and organic grocery store with a bakery, deli, and wellness section.

PICNIC DAY

Picnic Day is UC Davis' annual open house that draws over 100,000 people each year. Picnic Day is held on the third Saturday of April and is the largest student run event in the country!

WHOLE EARTH FESTIVAL

Only Davis would hold Whole Earth Festival, an event focused on promoting sustainability and peace. The festival takes place on Mother's Day weekend each May and hosts live musicians, craft, food, and education booths.
